Preparing for an INTERACTIVE ACTION PLAN
Welcome to Fountas & Pinnell Classroom™

Congratulations on the journey ahead—a journey that will transform your classroom, your teaching, and the literacy lives of your students. As you prepare to implement a new literacy system, we at Heinemann are honored to partner with you to ensure an efficient and effective plan for Fountas & Pinnell Classroom™ (FPC) in your school/district.

A Vision for Literacy Education

With more than 25 years of literacy leadership, the extensive work of Irene Fountas and Gay Su Pinnell has coalesced into Fountas & Pinnell Classroom™—a first-of-its-kind, cohesive system for high-quality, classroom-based literacy instruction centered on a powerful principle: what we teach, we value; and what we value, we teach. To that end, Fountas & Pinnell Classroom™ is built on a set of foundational beliefs and core values (see page 4) that together reflect a transformative vision of what literacy education can be: a shared commitment to meaningful, effective, responsive teaching that ensures the right of every student to lead a literate life.

From Vision to Action

Turning a vision into action requires a carefully laid out plan. You may be asking yourself, “Where do I start?” With a pen in hand, start here, in this action plan, thinking together with colleagues. The 4 steps in this implementation action plan are designed to put you, your students, and your school on the path to literacy success.

LET’S GET STARTED . . .

1. Define Your Vision & Values
   p. 2

2. Set Your Goals
   p. 6

3. Get to Know Fountas & Pinnell Classroom™
   p. 14

4. Plan Your Literacy Time
   p. 26
Define Your Vision & Values

Defining your values establishes a foundation on which to build your instructional goals and a plan. Envision the ideal design for literacy instruction in your classroom. What are your values and vision for the literacy lives of the students you teach?

IN STEP 1, YOU WILL HAVE THE OPPORTUNITY TO:

• Review and reflect on Fountas and Pinnell’s Core Values
• Envision and name the values you have for literacy instruction in your own classroom.
STEP 1: DEFINE YOUR VISION & VALUES

Review Fountas and Pinnell’s Core Values

THE SCHOOLS WE ENVISION recognize every child’s right to grow up literate as a member of a dynamic learning community that values the richness of linguistic, ethnic, and cultural diversity. Members of the school community are treated and treat others with empathy, kindness, and respect. Students are motivated to investigate new ideas that fuel intellectual curiosity and act as powerful agents in their own learning. Because students are fully engaged and feel a sense of joy in their own learning, they achieve a higher level of literacy. Through dynamic literacy education that exemplifies the beliefs and core values described below, students come to understand their physical, social, and emotional world and their roles as informed global citizens—hallmarks of the literate lives they can lead.

FOUNTAS AND PINNELL’S CORE VALUES

Schools are places where students:

1. Act as members of a cohesive learning community that sustains their literacy growth and success.
2. Engage in authentic inquiry within and beyond the classroom walls to ignite their intellectual curiosity and expand their knowledge of the world and of others.
3. Believe in themselves and their own ability to acquire and use language and literacy for learning and enjoyment.
4. Read, think about, talk about, and write about relevant content that engages their hearts and minds every day.
5. Read, think about, talk about, and write about texts that are culturally sensitive, reflect the diversity in our world, and vary in genre, content, and perspective.

Schools are places where literacy educators:

6. Implement a coherent set of evidence-based instructional practices in whole-class, small-group, and individual contexts.
7. Make expert instructional decisions based on evidence gained from systematic observation and ongoing assessment data.
8. Work as a team to take collective responsibility for the high achievement of each student in a widely diverse population.
9. Act as members of a community with a common vision, common goals, common language, and a strong belief that their work can transform children’s lives through literacy.
10. Demonstrate an unwavering commitment to their own professional learning and to supporting the learning of their colleagues and team members.

Define Your Values

As you reflect on Fountas and Pinnell’s core values, you’ll likely find that you already share some of them, perhaps using one or more to guide the decisions you make as a teacher or school leader. Fountas & Pinnell Classroom™ is a system through which you can “teach into” all of these core values or mold them into your own. As you begin to implement FPC, each instructional context becomes an opportunity for a deeper commitment to and a greater expression of the core values in your classroom.

Defining your values establishes a foundation on which to build your instructional priorities and instructional plan. Envision the ideal design for literacy instruction in your classroom and record your values below.

<thead>
<tr>
<th>VALUE</th>
<th>VISION</th>
<th>PROFESSIONAL LEARNING TOOLS</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>What are your values for the literacy lives of the students in your classrooms?</td>
<td>What would you ideally see and hear students doing during literacy time?</td>
<td>What would you and your colleagues need to teach toward that value?</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Set Your Goals

Turning a vision into action requires the process of design—a plan [set of goals] for a system that works in a coherent way. Let your core values form the backbone of your decisions, and lead you to set instructional goals that reinforce these values. Reflection provides an opportunity to lean into your practice and self-assess current models in order to set and prioritize instructional goals.

IN STEP 2, YOU WILL HAVE THE OPPORTUNITY TO:

• Self-assess your current literacy instruction
• Identify and prioritize your implementation and instructional goals.
Self-Assess Your Literacy Model

Use the questions below to reflect on your current literacy instruction and to prompt conversation with colleagues as you set and prioritize goals.

1. What student materials are you currently using for literacy instruction? What instructional resources do teachers use?

2. What is driving the need for a new literacy system?

3. How do you and other stakeholders in the district define success in implementing a new literacy system?

4. What school-wide initiatives need to be considered in prioritizing goals?

5. What instructional contexts are you/your teachers most comfortable with?

6. What particular topics or instructional contexts (interactive read-aloud, shared reading, phonics/spelling/word study, reading minilessons, guided reading, book clubs, independent reading, etc.) do you want to focus on in greater depth?
7. What is the most recent professional development you/your teachers have had?

8. How much instructional time do you have to focus on literacy?

9. How do you currently use observation/assessment to inform your teaching decisions?

10. How familiar are you with The Literacy Continuum? With Fountas and Pinnell’s work in general?

11. Do you have a centralized book room to store shared books/resources? How do you allocate space for shared resources?

12. What infrastructures are currently in place for professional development (PD)? How much time is dedicated to collaboration and professional learning? Who delivers the PD?
STEP 2: SET YOUR GOALS

GETTING STARTED

| ASSESSMENT | Classroom teachers are not using a text-based assessment (such as Benchmark Assessment System and running records). |
| CLASSROOM LITERACY INSTRUCTION (GENERAL) | Instruction primarily in whole-group using a scripted, sequential reading program (single core text or novel sets). |
| THE LITERACY CONTINUUM | Teachers have limited or no familiarity with The Literacy Continuum. |
| INTERACTIVE READ-ALOUD | Teachers read aloud occasionally, but don’t make connections across books. |
| SHARED READING | Teachers do not currently use shared reading with enlarged texts or poetry. |
| READING MINILESSONS | Teachers do not currently use whole-group reading minilessons based on specific language and literacy goals from The Literacy Continuum. |
| GUIDED READING | • Teachers do not currently use guided reading, but engage in some small-group instruction.
• School does not yet have a leveled bookroom. |
| BOOK CLUBS | Teachers do not currently engage children in book clubs. |
| CLASSROOM INSTRUCTION (INDEPENDENT) | • Students rarely have the opportunity to choose books and read independently.
• No classroom library or a minimal number of books available. |
| PHONICS/WORD STUDY | Teachers may be using separate phonics, spelling, and vocabulary program, but it is not linked to reading and writing. |
| WRITING | Modeled, shared, interactive writing, and writing about reading not currently used with regularity. |
| INTERVENTION | Supplants classroom instruction (resembles sequential phonics), but is not consistent or coherent with classroom instruction. |
| PROFESSIONAL LEARNING | Teachers do not have regular time to collaborate and learn together. |

MOVING FORWARD

| ASSESSMENT | Classroom teachers are starting to use a text-based assessment (such as Benchmark Assessment System and running records). |
| CLASSROOM LITERACY INSTRUCTION (GENERAL) | Teachers use a scripted, sequential reading program [core text], but there is movement in the school to move away from a program approach. |
| THE LITERACY CONTINUUM | Teachers have a tentative plan to purchase and implement The Literacy Continuum, but do not currently have a comprehensive curriculum document to plan for and guide teaching. |
| INTERACTIVE READ-ALOUD | Teachers read aloud once or twice a week [text sets not currently in use]. |
| SHARED READING | Teachers occasionally use shared reading with enlarged texts or poetry, but do not revisit for specific teaching opportunities. |
| READING MINILESSONS | Teachers occasionally use whole-group reading minilessons, but not in a systematic way. |
| GUIDED READING | • Teachers provide some guided reading instruction.
• School has a dedicated space for a bookroom, but a limited number of books at each level. |
| BOOK CLUBS | Teachers provide a book club opportunity a few times a year. |
| CLASSROOM INSTRUCTION (INDEPENDENT) | • Students have limited time [about once a week] to choose books and read independently.
• Small classroom libraries with books organized in categories. |
| PHONICS/WORD STUDY | Teachers use a phonics, spelling, and vocabulary program and occasionally make links to reading and writing. |
| WRITING | Modeled, shared, interactive writing, and writing about reading implemented, but teachers are still building familiarity. |
| INTERVENTION | Supplements or supplants classroom literacy instruction. Generally not consistent or coherent with classroom instruction. |
| PROFESSIONAL LEARNING | Teachers have limited time [e.g., four times a year] to collaborate and learn together. |

4 EXPANDING EXPERTISE

School/district has a high level of coherence among teaching teams and across school districts, but is constantly expanding their expertise and learning how to use data for improvement.

Self-Assess Your Literacy Instruction and Identify a Pathway

Take a look at the characteristics listed in this chart, organized by instructional contexts on the left, and falling under four general pathways: (1) Getting Started, (2) Moving Forward, (3) Gaining Momentum, and (4) Expanding Expertise. Mark the characteristic within each context row that most clearly describes your current literacy teaching, resources, environment, and capacity.

Where do most of your checkmarks fall? Do the majority of your checkmarks fall within one pathway? Or are they spread across various pathways? If so, you’re not alone! The next few pages will guide you in mapping out an implementation plan and goals.
Now that you have identified where you are in your current literacy model and instruction, you can think together with your teaching and leadership team to determine a path forward to amplify the literacy teaching and learning in your classroom, school, and district. The questions below will help you identify and prioritize next steps.

1. What areas of your current literacy instruction need reflection, refinement, growth or adaptation?

2. What aspect of your current literacy instruction should be prioritized as a focal instructional context? What is your starting point?

3. What materials do you need to shift your current model to align with your vision, and extend teaching and learning forward?
Now that you and your colleagues have articulated your vision and self-assessed your current literacy model, use that information to set implementation and instructional goals.

What are your goals for literacy teaching and learning next year?

Example: Implement a new, cohesive literacy system in every PreK–6 classroom in our school/district. Create a two-year buying plan and implement one instructional context at a time. Start with interactive read-aloud. Build familiarity and comfort with the lesson framework, strengthen instructional decision-making, and meet in bi-weekly professional learning communities (PLCs) to reflect, refine, and learn together. After a month or two, roll out another instructional context of FPC based on student needs and identified goals.

First Year Implementation Goals (Priority)
Get to Know Fountas & Pinnell Classroom™

FPC is a transformative, first-of-its-kind literacy system. Use the following pages to get to know the system so you can begin to plan how FPC can help you meet the literacy goals you have for your students.

IN STEP 3, YOU WILL HAVE THE OPPORTUNITY TO:
• Familiarize yourself with the instructional contexts of FPC
• Explore The Fountas & Pinnell Literacy Continuum, the instructional anchor for every goal, book, and lesson in FPC
• Map out a plan to implement FPC
• Identify professional learning needs and opportunities.
The Fountas & Pinnell Classroom™ Instructional Contexts

Fountas & Pinnell Classroom™ is comprised of seven instructional contexts. Below is a quick look at these contexts and how they fit into whole-group, small-group, and independent learning opportunities. Using all these contexts in a cohesive way, coupled with your high-impact teaching, enables students to grow as thoughtful users of literacy together in a community of learners.

Whole-Group Teaching

- Shared Reading
  - An exquisite collection of original texts (enlarged and accompanying small versions) that nurture students' abilities to construct meaning in a supported context so they can enjoy reading and learn critical concepts of how texts work.
  - 200 titles spanning grades PreK-3
  - Lesson folder per title
  - Audio book per title

- Interactive Read-Aloud
  - A collection of the very best age-appropriate, grade-appropriate trade books to promote the joy of reading, expand vocabulary, and nurture the ability to think, talk, and write about texts that fully engage students’ interest.
  - 120 titles per grade PreK-6
  - Lesson folder per title

- Phonics, Spelling, and Word Study
  - Explicit lessons for whole-group instruction and small-group application that help students explore, attend to, learn about, and efficiently use sounds, letters, and words.
  - 100 lessons per grade K-5

Independent Learning

- Independent Reading
  - A carefully curated collection of authentic children’s literature that provides the opportunity for students to develop tastes as readers and to read a large number of self-selected books independently. With accompanying conferring cards, you can make specific teaching points in brief conferences that lead the individual reader forward.
  - 150 titles per grade K-2
  - 200 titles per grade 3-6
  - Conferring card per title

- Guided Reading
  - The most powerful and engaging authentic, original texts to build each student’s ability to process increasingly challenging books with fluency and comprehension. Build a rich guided reading collection over time with:
    - 1,300 titles spanning grades K-6
    - Lesson folder per title

Small-Group Teaching

- Guided Reading
  - The most powerful and engaging authentic, original texts to build each student’s ability to process increasingly challenging books with fluency and comprehension. Build a rich guided reading collection over time with:
    - 1,300 titles spanning grades K-6
    - Lesson folder per title

- Book Clubs/Literature Discussion
  - An authentic opportunity to bring students together for in-depth discussion of a captivating trade book they have read in order to extend thinking and learn about themselves as readers.
  - 32 titles per grade K-3
  - 48 titles per grade 4-6
  - Discussion card per title

- A Firm Foundation
  - The Fountas & Pinnell Literacy Continuum—the roadmap for literacy acquisition in children over time—and the F&P Text Level Gradient™ are the foundations of Fountas & Pinnell Classroom™. The specific demands, competencies, and behaviors to teach for, assess, and reinforce (at each grade level and text level) inform and inhabit Fountas & Pinnell Classroom™.
Using the instructional contexts of FPC in a cohesive way, coupled with your high-impact teaching, enables students to grow as thoughtful users of literacy together in a community of learners.

Begin by mapping out a plan. What contexts do you have or plan to implement in year one? What contexts do you plan to add in the future? Do you have the essential teacher tools to start implementing FPC? Consult the PreK–6 Implementation Timeline at fountasandpinnell.com/resourcelibrary to coordinate timing with your implementation plan.

Required PLT Resources: A Quick Check

The following tools/resources are required (available separately) to ensure a successful implementation of FPC. Do a quick check and be sure you have these resources at your fingertips:

- The Fountas & Pinnell Literacy Continuum, Expanded Edition
  Available in print and digital formats
  Use this indispensable tool to plan, identify goals, observe children and reflect on the literacy instruction you provide to individuals, small groups, and your whole class.

- Guided Reading, Second Edition
  Use this practical and inspiring book for an in-depth exploration of responsive teaching, and a comprehensive look at guided reading within a coherent literacy system.

- Prompting Guide, Part 1: for Oral Reading and Early Writing
  Prompting Guide, Part 2: for Comprehension: Thinking, Talking, and Writing
  Use these tools for suggestions on the language that you can use to teach, prompt for, and reinforce effective reading behaviors.

- Reader’s Notebooks (1 per student)
  Use these tools to encourage reflection, inquiry, critical thinking, and dialogue about reading with students.

- Benchmark Assessment System
  Use this system to determine reading levels, gain specific information about readers’ strengths and needs, and document progress over time.

  Includes The Literacy Continuum
An Instructional Anchor:
The Fountas & Pinnell Literacy Continuum

The Literacy Continuum is at the center of all Fountas & Pinnell Literacy™ resources. It contains the text demands, competencies, and behaviors on which such valuable resources as Leveled Literacy Intervention, Benchmark Assessment System, and now Fountas & Pinnell Classroom™ are built. The Literacy Continuum serves as the instructional anchor for every lesson, goal and book in FPC.

To help you navigate both FPC and The Literacy Continuum together, the context colors align.

Ways to Use The Literacy Continuum

When everyone in the school uses the same literacy tools/language as they move from observation to instruction, a common conversation occurs. Examining and using The Literacy Continuum together, colleagues can discuss common expectations for student achievement and all students can benefit from coherent, efficient, and responsive teaching.

The Essential Resource for Thinking Together About Literacy Development
Wondering where to start your professional learning journey? Take time to think and talk with your colleagues, and reflect on your goals and instructional priorities to establish next steps.

1. Does your school/district already have a system in place for ongoing professional development such as professional learning communities or regularly scheduled time to meet as groups?

2. How familiar with Fountas & Pinnell professional books are the teachers in your school/district?

3. How many instructional contexts will your school/district be implementing?

4. How much time does your school/district have for professional learning? And how many teachers will participate in the identified professional learning?

STEP 4: PLAN YOUR LITERACY TIME
Plan Your Literacy Time

Time for literacy is critical, but finding time to fit it all in can be a challenge. Thoughtful and intentional planning is needed to ensure efficient, engaging, and effective literacy opportunities in your classroom. As you plan your day and your year, consider the length of your instructional time for literacy. This will help you to prioritize instructional goals and actions.

IN STEP 4, YOU WILL HAVE THE OPPORTUNITY TO:
- Create a daily literacy schedule
- Plan a week (or weeks) in your Fountas & Pinnell Classroom™ using examples to get you started.
Create a Daily Literacy Schedule

All of the instructional contexts of FPC fit together in a coherent way and offer students multiple opportunities to access complex, age-appropriate texts; and engage in powerful small-group, whole-group, and independent reading that propels their learning. Below is one sample schedule for the literacy time in a grade one classroom. Start with this suggested framework (from the FPC samplers), or design your own.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>INSTRUCTIONAL CONTEXT</th>
<th>ACTIVITY OPTIONS</th>
<th>MINUTES EACH DAY</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>GROUP MEETING</td>
<td>• Bring the classroom community together to introduce/discuss the day and set goals.</td>
<td>5</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>INTERACTIVE READ-ALOUD</td>
<td>• Teacher reads aloud a book from a text set and children share their thinking. The text experience often leads to writing about reading in the Reader’s Notebook.</td>
<td>15</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>SHARED READING</td>
<td>• Teacher engages children in shared reading using enlarged print books and shared poetry charts and often leads to shared/interactive writing.</td>
<td>10</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>PHONICS, SPELLING, AND WORD STUDY LESSON</td>
<td>• Teacher provides an explicit, inquiry-based lesson on a phonics principle that children can apply to reading and writing.</td>
<td>10</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>BREAK</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>READING MINILESSON</td>
<td>• Teacher provides an explicit minilesson for children to apply to their independent reading and writing about reading/drawing.</td>
<td>10</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>SMALL-GROUP INSTRUCTION</td>
<td>• Teacher meets with 3 Guided Reading groups each day.</td>
<td>60</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>• Teacher initiates Book Clubs as appropriate, and they meet about once per month.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>INDEPENDENT LITERACY WORK</td>
<td>• Rotate through Literacy Centers OR engage in four tasks:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>1. Read a book</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>2. Listen to a book</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>3. Work on writing</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>4. Work on letters/words [application from Phonics lesson]</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>GROUP SHARE</td>
<td>• Gather children together to reflect on and share learning.</td>
<td>10</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>BREAK</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>WRITERS’ WORKSHOP</td>
<td>• Teacher provides an explicit minilesson and then supports individual children as they work on their own writing or convenes a guided writing group.</td>
<td>60</td>
</tr>

Plan a Week (or Weeks) of Literacy Instruction

The first eight weeks of school is a critical and important time—time to get to know your students, introduce the classroom learning spaces, establish routines and expectations, and plan priority instructional actions. Collaborate with your team to plan what a week in FPC would look like in your school. Use the Weekly Planning templates on the following pages to map out literacy learning across the instructional contexts of FPC. (A similar, downloadable, “Weekly Lesson Plan” is available for FPC users in the Online Resources.)

Consider the following questions before you plan your week:

1. What instructional contexts will you start with?

2. How much time each day/week do you have for each context?

HELPFUL TIPS

Here are some ideas for creating a schedule:

- Use sticky notes, cards or print the FPC instructional context tile stickers from fountasandpinnell.com to create blocks of instructional time and move them around, accounting for lunch and other daily specials, until you have an effective literacy schedule.
- Establish consistent routines that you will use frequently with students. Children find comfort in predictable learning schedules.
- Meet with colleagues to brainstorm schedules.
