Accessing Learning Resources during Covid-19

Pearson Canada is offering over 100 digital resources at no cost during the current school shutdown: <https://www.pearsoncanada.com/athome>

Additionally, to help teachers reach students at home, Pearson is granting educators temporary privileges to the resources they have already purchased in print form to share content digitally using the framework below.

1. Pearson content can be scanned, photographed, snipped, captured or posted but only up to 10% of pages from a Textbook, Line Master, Answer Key, Website can be made available (see chart for specific details)
2. Pearson content can be made available only via secure access (students must login to see it)
3. Pearson content can only be shared with the students (or their parents) in your class and not made available to anyone else
4. Normal permission fees do not apply during this period

These privileges are extended until June 30th, 2020. Pearson content cannot be posted, scanned or made available anywhere after this date without written consent from Pearson.
